MUTT LYNCH VOTED BEST PET FRIENDLY WINERY IN SONOMA COUNTY 2019 Bohemian Best of the North Bay Readers Poll Awards

(Windsor, CA, March 22, 2019) - Mutt Lynch Winery was voted Best Pet Friendly Winery in Sonoma County in the 2019 Bohemian Best of the North Bay Readers Poll. Winemaker and owner Brenda Lynch proudly accepted the award at the Sonoma County awards ceremony on March 22. According to Brenda, "this award acknowledges our efforts to create a tasting room environment that appeals to dog loving wine drinkers. On behalf of my entire staff, we thank the voters (and their dogs!) who recognized our unique place in the Sonoma County community".

About Mutt Lynch

Owners and Winemaker Brenda Lynch started her winery in 1995 with the goal of creating a brand that combined artisanal wines and "all things dog" into something truly special. Award winning-wines with dog-awesome labels, brought to you with a sense of whimsy! What more could you ask for?

For over 25 years, Brenda and husband Chris Lynch have combined their love of winemaking and dogs into Mutt Lynch Winery. Since its inception, the winery has donated a portion of all annual proceeds to animal rescue organizations.
