

2009 Merlot Over and Play Dead

This is not a wimpy Merlot. The bulldog on the label is no accident. Never a fan of wimpy wines Merlot or otherwise, Brenda's take on this "don't get no respect" varietal is well...bullish! Her focus has always been on picking very ripe Merlot fruit to get the black and red fruits she loves, and to get soft and ripe tannins. Our 2009 vintage was aged predominantly in used barrels to allow for maturation of the varietal fruit character, rather than for overt extractions of oak flavors and tannins.

Brenda's Winemaking... Great fruit & cold beer

It's all about the fruit. For her Dog Series wines, Brenda has one goal in mind - create fruit-forward wines with varietally true aromatics, mid palette weight and flavor, and a full bodied and balanced finish. Over the years, Brenda has searched up and down California for vineyards that deliver the right quality of fruit for her wine style. The Central Coast appellation works perfectly for Brenda. The region stretches 250 miles along the coast of California, from San Francisco in the north to Santa Barbara in the south, averaging 25 miles wide. It is made up of numerous sub appellations - Paso Robles, Arroyo Grande, Monterey County, Livermore Valley - where Brenda sources her grapes. The beauty of these diverse regions is that they share the cooling influence of the Pacific Ocean. Brenda's travels always seem to have stops in beach towns for a cold beer at the local pub, which she claims are an equally important part of her winemaking!

Tasting Notes

This wine has wonderful cherry aromatics and flavors of cassis, blackberry and plum. Medium-bodied in weight, the pretty and bright fruit flavors are classic "Merlot" and lead into a well balanced finish. The structure is there but the tannins are smooth.

Consider pairing with your favorite recipe for lamb or stuffed mushrooms.

—Wimp not!
