

2013 Fou Fou Le Blanc White

Our 2013 Fou Fou Le Blanc White is a delicate blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Chennin Blanc, and Verdelho—a grape varietal known for being crisp and fruit-forward. This release clearly showcases the Sauvignon Blanc and continues to reflect Brenda's rules for producing a great white—pick ripe fruit, avoid herbaceous aromas and flavors, protect the wine's natural acidity during fermentation and no oak. The 2013 Fou Fou Le Blanc White is a wonderful embodiment of this approach and delivers to you a delightfully fresh and well-balanced wine. Fou Fou for you!—Brenda Lynch

Brenda's Winemaking...Great fruit & cold beer

It's all about the fruit. For her "Dog Series" wines, Brenda has one goal in mind—create fruit-forward wines with varietally true aromatics, mid palette weight and flavor, and a full-bodied and balanced finish. Brenda sources her fruit from a variety of appellations within California always letting the quality of the fruit drive her selections. Her travels always seem to have stops in beach towns for a cold beer at the local pub, which she claims are an equally important part of her winemaking!

Tasting Notes

Straw yellow in color and with pretty aromas of floral and citrus, the freshness and balance of our 2013 Fou Fou Le Blanc White makes this wine a real standout. The flavors of melon, pear and citrus are easy to detect. The near perfect acidity gives it the structure that adds to its cleansing and fresh finish. As with all of Brenda's whites—no oak. She lets the fruit speak for itself.

This delightfully fresh wine will pair well with many cheeses and salads but my advice...pair with la mer! Anything from abalone to fish tacos will leave you saying "Ce Fou est fantastique!"
