

2014 mbf Chardonnay

The foundation of my limited production mbf (man's best friend) wines is always a strong relationship. The Greyhound breed has a special place in my heart. They are gentle and reserved yet explosively fast—a wonderful contrast of traits that makes them unique. I have come to view and produce Chardonnay in a similar way—a special white wine that blends subtle, reserved aromas with rich, intense and explosive flavors.—Brenda Lynch

Brenda's Winemaking

For our third vintage of mbf Chardonnay, Brenda used 50% stainless steel and 50% new French oak barrel fermentation—100% malolactic. The two-step process of malolactic fermentation to soften the wine's natural acidity and sur lie aging—lees were stirred in barrel and tank every 10-14 days, produce a wine with a fuller mouthfeel,

Tasting Notes

Our 2014 mbf Chardonnay delivers elegance and balance. Some might call it refined. Having the color of golden straw, the 2014 vintage opens to lovely citrus notes. On the palate, there are fruit-forward flavors of lemon and green apple. It's crispness and structure come from medium acidity. Brenda's winemaking skills have rendered a medium-bodied wine with a lush mouthfeel and a lovely medium-length finish.

I just tried this with my favorite crab cakes, but I can also see this with some fresh-caught salmon. Um, yes please!
