

2015 "mbf" Primitivo

The foundation of my limited production mbf (man's best friend) wines is always a strong relationship; a vineyard owner, a handshake agreement and my desire to craft an excellent wine from his or her grapes - Brenda Lynch

2015 mbf Primitivo, Speedy Creek Vineyard Knights Valley - Sonoma County

Primitivo is a close cousin to Zinfandel. It's name derives from the terms primativus or primaticcio, which refer to the grape's tendency to ripen earlier than other varieties. However, Speedy Creek Vineyard's hillside location and more extreme growing conditions produce small intensely flavored berries that ripen later in the growing season.

Speedy Creek Vineyard, Knights Valley

I first hiked the Speedy Creek Vineyard in Knights Valley with owners Dave and Kathy Burton in 2008. Speedy Creek refers to the "speed" of their seasonal winter creek as it cascades down alongside their hillside vineyard. The Burtons are committed to sustainable growing practices and Dave's Primitivo grapes have an intensity of character reflective of this true hillside terroir.

Brenda's Winemaking

Handle with care. 2015 is our seventh vintage of our Speedy Creek Vineyard Primitivo and my winemaking approach remained consistent - gentle handling and french oak aging. Fermentation took place in an open top tank, with 3 times per day punch-downs. The wine was barreled down and malolactic fermentation took place in barrel. The wine was aged in 100% French oak barrels for 18 months.

Tasting Notes

Our 2015 "mbf" Primitivo is a wonderful expression of this varietal. It's deep garnet in color and on the nose you'll easily detect blackberries and pepper. The flavor profile is one of blackberries, black currants, and cherries. There's no question this is a big wine, but everything is in balance. The ample tannins lead up to a very satisfying finish.

Although Primitivo is Italian in heritage, we've grown to love our Primitivo paired with lamb. Grilled lamb chops during the summer with a simple herb rub of salt, pepper and rosemary.
