

2017 Rosie Rosé

At Chez Lynch We Love Rosé! Our summers have long included well chilled bottles of Rosé wine - cold, refreshing yet full of flavor. Winemaker Brenda Lynch first made our Rosie Rosé in 2012, producing a tiny amount of wine. It sold out within 30 days! Her latest vintage, 2017, is one of her best. Her winemaking secrets are simple - focus on beautiful color and pretty fruit flavors, ferment the wine at very cool temperatures to preserve these wonderful characters and no oak aging. The result... our 2017 Rosie Rosé has wonderful fruit flavors with a dry and crisp finish. We hope you love her too!

Brenda's Winemaking

It's all about the fruit. For her Dog Series wines, Brenda has one goal in mind - create fruit-forward wines with varietally true aromatics, midpalate weight and flavor, and a full bodied and balanced finish. Although Zinfandel is the lead grape in this wine, the 2017 Rosie Rosé is a true blend of several varietals that each contribute to its character.

Keep the winemaking simple. Brenda's winemaking for her rosé is focused on preserving the fresh berry fruit character of her grapes. Very gentle crushing and destemming is followed by a very limited cold soaking to extract just a hint of color. The wine is pressed and then undergoes a slow, cold fermentation until dry. It rests in its stainless steel tank over winter until bottling the following spring.

Tasting Notes

Our Rosie Rosé delivers fresh and bright berry fruit aromas and flavors - picture fresh strawberries, perhaps a hint of blueberries, and definitely some red raspberries. The is medium bodied and combines some wonderful fruit forward flavors with a dry and crisp finish. Our favorite part - its beautiful color makes every glass a treat!

First and foremost, serve our Rosie on its own - its the perfect summertime quaff before a meal. The beauty about Rosie is that she then shifts to the table with ease. Serve with lighter grilled meats - teriyaki marinated chicken thighs - as a counterpoint to the marinade's distinctive flavors. As well, our Rosie is perfect with grilled fish and vegetables - ideally straight from our home garden!
